

This System Called School

Schedule

- Getting to know the school hierarchy
- Activity: Draw Your School
- The ten commandments for success in schools
- Tips for presenting at staff meetings

Martin Fleming has worked with young people for 18 years in schools and community settings. Besides being an author of 10 books, he is also a popular national presenter, bringing humor and activities that help us value the personal power we all have.

The Ten Commandments for Success in Schools

- 1. Build relationships with staff
- 2. Don't align with just one group
- 3. Develop a relationship with your administration
- 4. Attend staff meetings
- 5. Get to know lots of students
- 6. Rise above the gossip
- 7. Be bold, but get approval first
- 8. Have a "How can I help you?" attitude
- 9. Be aware of what you wear
- 10. Promote your success

Notes:

martin fleming
750 Swanson Gulch Road
Manson, Washington 98831
509 • 687 - 4802
martinf@forkidsake.net
and check us out on the web at www.forkidsake.net